

ELANCO

NATIONAL ACCOUNT MANAGER

base territory may either be Brisbane, Melbourne or Sydney

Exciting opportunity to join a global leader

ELANCO is a global leader in the discovery and commercialisation of technology that improves animal health and the efficiency of livestock production.

Elanco is seeking to appoint a motivated sales professional to represent the company's range of leading premix products to feed mills, distributors and nutritionists across Australia.

Reporting to the Intensive Food Animal Sales Manager and working as part of a highly motivated team, you'll play a key role in the implementation of sales and marketing plans to ensure the company's continued growth.

You must have tertiary qualifications in agriculture, science or marketing, backed by a comprehensive knowledge and practical experience in premixing / feed milling. Sales experience within the animal health sector would be advantageous, although ongoing training will be provided.

Excellent communication, presentation and organisational skills are crucial for success in this role, as are high levels of initiative, self-motivation and a positive, 'can-do', customer-focused approach.

This position involves some travel, including some nights away from home. In return, the successful candidate will receive a generous remuneration package, including a fully-maintained company vehicle.
